THE CELINA DEMOCRAT

Fifteenth Year—No. 27

CELINA, OHIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1910

Weekly—One Dollar per Year

One newspaper in the home is worth a dozen on the street to the advertiser. The Democrat is the home paper of Mercer Co.

HARMON TO-NIGHT

The Present and the Next Governor of Ohio to Address People in This City.

Big Crowd Expected to Meet Man Who Has Republican Gangsters on Run.

Governor Harmon, who is scheduled for an address in this city to-night, has no less than eight speeches for today. He leaves Piqua on a trolley special at 9:30 this morning. Sidney will be his first stop. He will be at Wapakoneta at noon, and will visit St.

Marys, Minister and New Bremen, arriving at Celina at 6 o'clock. It had not been definitely settled last night where the meeting will be held, but the city hall will probably be selected.

Governor Harmon will be accompanied by a couple of his running mates and several other distinguished Democrats. It is particularly fitting that the Governor give old Mercer a visit at this time, for the first of his appointees to uncover some of the rottenness leading to and from the capitol was uncovered by a Celina man—Ed F. Romer—a member of the State banking department, who devoted months in the laborious task of digging out the facts relative to the loaning of State funds to favorite banks of political gangsters.

Rewards for Hustlers

The Democratic executive committee at its meeting last Monday evening set apart $15 to act as a stimulant among the party workers in getting out the vote on election day. The money will be divided—$10 going to the first and $5 to the second central committee having the largest gains in their respective precincts for Governor Harmon over his vote in 1908. The four wards in Celina are not to participate in this offer.

Death of a Real Progressive

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, the noted Republican insurgent leader, who, next to Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, has been the greatest threat to the side of the administration and the interests, died suddenly last Saturday. His death is to be deplored. He stood with the progressive Republicans of today where Bryan and Luntz and a few men of that caliber have stood with the Democratic masses the last dozen years or more, defamed and lied about by the tools of plutocracy and their little stool pigeons throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Lentz Opens Local Campaign

With Notable Address at Court House, and Is Enthusiastically Received.

Hon. John J. Lentz, of Columbus, opened the Democratic campaign in this city last Saturday afternoon with a telling address, greeted with frequent and hearty applause. He used insurgent Republican ammunition to demolish the administration of Taft, Aldrich, Cannon and the Trusts. Nothing more harsh nor damaging could be said than has been said by the great leaders of progressive Republicanism—La Follette, Cummins and Dolliver—whom he quoted at length. The making of the latest tariff inquiry was forcibly illustrated, and Senator Dick's part in the dirty work was convincingly presented. It is little wonder Senator Dick declines to meet Mr. Lentz in public debate.

Mr. Lentz's position on public questions has been made known to The Democrat's readers in an outline of the platform upon which he seeks Mr. Dick's seat in the U. S. Senate. It is clean and genuinely democratic. His record in Congress was that of a progressive when progressiveness was met with hoots and cat-calls, but he has never wavered, and whether he wins or loses, like old John Brown he goes marching on.

On contributions to campaign expenses he takes advance ground. He would banish the practice entirely, letting the entire cost of campaigns fall directly upon the people as all other election expense is paid, eliminating every interest that corrupts elections. While the departure suggested seems radical in the extreme, it is not so much so as seems at first thought, as other election safeguards and burdens are paid by the people and only this insidious source of corruption stands open and inviting.

The other measures Mr. Lentz is on record as favoring and on which he dwelt at length, were the installation of the telegraph in the post-offices of the country and the introduction of the parcels post over rural routes from towns and villages from which they radiate. After the meeting here Mr. Lentz was escorted to Rockford where he addressed an enthusiastic audience and his message was well received.

Stiff Fine Handed Out to Foul-Mouthed Boozer

Clyde May, a young fellow who believes in "personal liberty" and a boozier of the most pronounced type and about as foul-mouthed as they make them, was arrested on a warrant issued from "Squire Leininger's" court at Chataanooga last week. May was charged with disturbing and breaking up a meeting at a church east of Chataanooga on the evening of the 18th inst. He was taken before Squire Leininger last Friday, who sentenced him for $30 and costs—$10 in all—and to a ten-day workhouse sentence, suspended during good behavior.

Incorrigible, Erratic Boy, Son of Former Well Known Celina People, Charged With Stabbing Piqua Man.

[Piqua Leader-Dispatch, Oct. 14.] Philip Ley, 17, is a prisoner in the city jail awaiting a hearing on a charge of cutting with intent to kill. Last evening, Ley stabbed Clarence Hawk in the left breast over the heart. Hawk's life was saved only because the instrument struck one of his ribs.

Hawk has been paying some attention to Miss Celia Ley, 19, sister of his assailant. Ley seems to have been jealous and yesterday afternoon is said to have threatened his sister's life on account of Hawk.

At 7:15 last evening Ley met Hawk on River street. They stopped and exchanged a few words in which Ley told of his quarrel with his sister. While Hawk's attention was diverted by the approach of two young men, Ley suddenly pulled an instrument from his inside coat pocket and plunged it into Hawk's left breast.

Hawk sprang into the road and picked up a stone whereupon Ley ran down an alley. Hawk came down town and reported the matter to the police and then went to the doctor's office to have his wound dressed.

Later in the evening Ley was arrested and locked up. He admitted his part in the affair and said he had used a sharpened file which he had dropped and lost.

Ley is a son of Joseph Ley, of Burkettville, Darke County. He has been in the Lancaster reformatory and at Mansfield. He claims to be one month under 17 years old.

What course will be taken with him is in doubt. Probably he will be sent to the juvenile court.

Another Victim of Hunting Fever

Henry Schroeder, aged 17 years, son of J. S. Schroeder, East Market street, narrowly escaped death last Tuesday afternoon, when he accidentally discharged a shot gun while hunting on the George Wolgemuth farm, three miles east of this city.

The lad was hunting with Adam Birch and Hubert Goudy, and while climbing through a fence he carelessly pushed the gun through ahead of him, with the trigger cocked and the muzzle toward him. The trigger was pushed against a small piece of underbrush, causing it to snap, and the contents of the barrel were discharged. The shot grazed the lad's chin and the right side of his neck, only one of the shot however, entering the flesh. His right eye was badly burned by the powder, and it is feared he will lose the sight. Quite a hole was torn in the neck, but it is not believed that his wound will in any way prove serious.

The lad after being injured was helped to the George Wolgemuth home, about a quarter of a mile distant, and John Wolgemuth brought him to the office of Dr. Hattery, in this city, where the injuries were dressed.

SERVICE OF CELINA MAN MUCH SOUGHT

When Expert Is Needed to Dig Up Graft—Will Turn Light on Canal Scandal.

[Columbus Citizen.] Attorney General Denman asked Governor Harmon Tuesday morning to turn over to him all the evidence he had on the canal graft. Denman and Harmon will hold a conference some time Thursday and go over the canal situation. Denman announced that the statement Wednesday night that no star chamber sessions will be held in his investigation of the canal graft. "Everything will be thrown open to the public," he stated.

Denman has also made it clear that he needs the assistance of public works men in furnishing him with records. The men under suspicion will be called in after we learn the nature of the charges and secure the evidence and given a chance to explain. If the evidence warrant it I will present it immediately to grand juries. I promise you that the probe will go to the bottom regardless of whom it uncovers."

The attorney general said he would likely secure the assistance of Attorney H. J. Booth and E. F. Romer, an expert accountant. Attorney Booth has acted as special counsel for the attorney general in several important matters, while Romer assisted in digging up the alleged frauds in the state treasury under Cameron and McKinnon.

Court Will Begin Grind on Monday

The grand jury for the October term of the Common Pleas Court will convene in this city at 10 o'clock next Monday morning. Quite a bit of business will come before it this term, and it will likely be in session longer than usual. The petit jurors are summoned to appear a week before the 31st. There are seventy-three civil cases on the docket and several more will likely be filed this week. There are only eight divorce cases out of this list, an exceedingly small number.

Town Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Puthoff, West Anthony street, are the proud parents of a baby boy, born last Friday. The diphtheria quarantine on the homes of Val Hoel and Jos. Schlosser, southwest of town, was raised last Tuesday.

Council met in special session, with all members present, last Tuesday night and granted a two years' extension of time on the franchise of the Bluffton, Geneva and Celina traction line.

Word was received here the first of the week announcing the death of Mrs. J. F. Noble, former resident of the west end of the township, which occurred at Indianapolis, Ind., last Saturday, her death being caused by cancer.

The fire department was given a long run a few minutes before six o'clock last evening, when a stove-pipe at the Irvin Robinson home, on Lisle street, in the Citizens' addition, fell down, igniting the floor. The blaze had been extinguished when the department arrived on the scene.

Andrew Nell, baker at the Louis Klinger bakery, made application Tuesday to the probate court for naturalization papers, signifying his intention of becoming a citizen of the big democratic republic on earth if not the most democratic. He is 22 years of age and a native of Switzerland.

John Hoagland was again awarded the medal at the regular shoot of the Celina Gun Club last Tuesday afternoon, at the Mercelina Park field, breaking 23 out of 25. Only a few shooters were out, and John's nearest competitors for the emblem were Ed Brune and Sam Younger, who each secured 21.

Carl C. Cron, an employee of the Northern Pacific Railway company, with headquarters at St. Paul, Minn., gave the Democrat a call while in town this week, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Wm. Cron, and his brothers, Fred and Herman. He joined the Democrat's list of readers. He also gave us the information that Jos. Hanselman, a former resident of this city and a graduate of the local schools, had been admitted to the bar at St. Paul, and was practicing law with good success, in that city.

SOCIAL GOSSIP

Mrs. Ida Wilson was hostess to the Young Matrons' club last Monday evening. At the supper contest favors were awarded to Mesdames Fred Schmitt and George Weber.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet this afternoon with Mesdames Ira Wagner and J. F. Stemen, at the former's home on West Fayette street.

The Shakespeare Club was pleasantly entertained by Miss Edna Day last Friday evening. Following the literary program a social hour was enjoyed, with favors being bestowed upon Miss Edna Day.

Thirty people, including Wm. Newcomb and family, Miletus Newcomb and family, J. F. Stemen and family, Oren Newcomb and family, D. W. Miesse and family, Purn Copeland and family, Gracea Newcomb, Rev. Rice and Gail Speede, spent Sunday with John Dedrick and family in Center township. Games and music helped while away the time. A fine time was reported to The Democrat by one of the participants. It's not much wonder—just glance at the bill of fare: Fried chicken and gravy, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, stewed chicken with noodles, potato salad, sliced tomatoes, pickles, mangoes, preserves, jelly, lemon pudding, cocoa pudding, pumpkin pie and devil's food cake, stewed pork, pork and beans and coffee. Several chickens lost their heads that day.

Wagner Ditch Work Sold

The Wagner ditch, northeast of this city, was sold in three sections by Surveyor L. L. Marsh yesterday afternoon for $1,565, being $380 less than the estimated cost of the improvement. Sections 1 and 2 were awarded to S. Fast for $1,000; Section 3 to L. E. Fox for $275, and Sections 4 and 5 to Mr. Fox for $285. This is one of the largest tile ditches in the county.

Where They Grow Potatoes

Dan Foley and son Carl, of Washington township, were in town yesterday and left The Democrat a sack of the finest potatoes that we have seen this year. Somebody must have been telling Dan we had a streak of Irish in our make up. They surely can grow potatoes down in that Wash county. Thanks.

SHAKE-UP AMONG CATHOLIC CLERGY

Rev. Tabke, Mueller and Kreuzkamp Among Those Affected in This County.

A total of thirty-two changes among the Catholic clergy in the Cincinnati Diocese have been made by Archbishop Henry Moeller and were announced Thursday, by Chancellor Bernard Moeller, at St. Peter's Cathedral, Cincinnati. The list is said to be one of the longest ever announced within the diocese.

The general movement of pastors is due largely to the death of a large number of priests and to the resignation of Rev. Fr. Hene, pastor of St. Anthony's church, Cincinnati. "Very serious consideration was required on the part of Archbishop Moeller to properly handle the responsibility. Rev. Fr. Sailer, of Holy Rosary church, St. Marys, has been retained in his present position. Following are the changes within a reasonable distance of Celina.

Father A. C. Adelman, now pastor of St. Michael's church in Lorain, O., succeeds the late Father Basman as pastor of St. Michael's pastorate in Cincinnati.

Father Anthony C. Tabke, now at Chickasaw, O., is appointed pastor at St. Peter's church, Dayton, O. Father Joseph B. Mueller, assistant at St. Henry's church, takes the Chickasaw pastorate.

Father Bernard H. Frandier, assistant at Holy Trinity church in Dayton, is made pastor of St. Patrick's church at Cincinnati, O., and Father James P. Ward, the citywood pastor, goes to the pastorate at St. Simon and Jude's church at West Jefferson.

Father Frank Kreuzkamp, of Mercer County, O., pastor of St. Remy's church, at Russia, O.

Father Anthony Moeller, pastor at Russia, O., becomes pastor of St. Michael's church at Berlin, O.

Horton Draws Two-Year Prize in Penitentiary

John Horton, of Dayton, the noted green goods swindler, recently found guilty of obtaining money under false pretense, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Mathers last Saturday noon, following the overruling by the court, of a motion for a new trial.

Counsel for the prisoner at once gave notice of appealing the case to the Circuit Court, and Judge Mathers thereupon suspended the sentence for thirty days, pending the arraignment of the case before that tribunal.

The harp, flute and violin in the hands of genius produce a most fascinating evening's entertainment. The Cafarellis are great."

WILLIAM CROSON SONS COMPANY

Carriage Manufacturers, Incorporated With Capital of $25,000.

The contemplated change in the firm name of the Croson Carriage Manufacturing Co., of which was made in a recent issue of the Democrat, occurred last Monday, when the firm of William Croson & Sons Co., was incorporated under the laws of the state with a capital of $25,000.

The members of the new firm include the children of the late Wm. Croson, the Board of Directors, being Fred J. Herman, F. A. W. and Flora Cron, of this city; John A. Cron, of Wauson; Carl G. The firm is just closing one of the most remunerative years in the history of the concern, with an outlook for even greater things next year.

Mendon Lad Suffered from Peculiar Accident

Kenneth Kinkley, aged 14 years, of near Mendon, is suffering from a peculiar accident that is feared will leave him the sight of one of his eyes. The lad was caring for a sick horse on his father's farm, when the animal switched her tail, striking the lad in the face. The one eye immediately became sore and all medical aid has so far been unable to relieve the suffering. The boy was taken to a hospital at Columbus for treatment last Tuesday.

ROYALTY AND CHURCH DONE

A cablegram from Lisbon underdate of 17th says: Portugal took the final steps to wipe out all traces of royalty and forever to separate church and state.

By a decree issued by the provisional government the royal house of Braganza, of which King Manuel was the titular head, is forever banished from the Republic of Portugal.

All orders of nobility are abolished and all titles revoked. The Government also decreed that all state functions heretofore handled by the church were to be taken out of the hands of the representatives of Rome, and ministered in future by members of the Government.

The church is to have no voice in the management of the State or in any of its co-ordinate branches. Especially is the school system removed from the church domination. We take off our hat to the newest republic. May it live to the end of time, and prove a source of pride and comfort to all its people.

Bunch of Evil-Doers Hit Hard

Philip Ramsey, recently fined in Justice Randabaugh's court after pleading guilty to stealing, was committed to jail last Tuesday. The "Squire" gave the fellow a week in which to pay his fine, but he failed to comply and was locked up.

Levi Kiser was arrested by Officer Hight last Saturday on a charge of non-support filed by his wife, Mary Kiser. He waived examination before Justice Randabaugh's court and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300. Failing to give bond he was sent to jail.

Dave Edwards, better known as Dave Grant, was arrested on a charge of petit larceny by Marshal Weber last Tuesday, the affidavit accusing him of stealing a pump and other articles from the Beaver Mills. He pleaded not guilty in Justice Randabaugh's court, but the "Squire" decided he was the guilty person after examining a number of witnesses and gave him $10 and costs and thirty days in the workhouse. Marshal Weber took him to Toledo Wednesday morning.

All are products of the saloon and disciples of "personal liberty." Their board bills and court expenses are paid by the "foreigner," however.

Back to Other Days

The Celina telephone exchange is to be moved into the Richardson building next week, and on Monday and Tuesday there will be no service over its lines. Keep this mind and swear accordingly.

BASE BALL

Celina will play the fast Coldwater club in this city next Sunday. Walls, the Ohio State League southpaw, will pitch for the visitors, while Myers or Frederick will work for the Kids. Coldwater will also be strengthened by the addition of several Wapakoneta stars. Game called at 2:30.

Celina easily defeated Coldwater in a loosely played and uninteresting contest in that village last Sunday afternoon, 7 and 3. The Kids won the game in the first inning on rotten field work by the Coldwater aggregation, coupled with several timely bingles, and for the rest of the game played like a bunch of school boys indulging in a game of round scrub.

Joyce, the big St. Marys twirler, started it off for Coldwater, but he retired in the sixth and Babe Walls, the "Beaver" from southern, who made a big hit with Portsmouth in the Ohio State League, this season, was sent in with the bases full and only one out. He finished that inning well, not allowing a run, but he went up in the seventh. After he had hit one man out, he walked four in, was hit by a bench and Billy Borman, an old time favorite, finished the game.

Myers started the game for the Kids, but retired in the fourth in favor of the young table maker, who pitched a nice game, despite the condition of his shoulder. Score:
